ORDER OF DISMISSAL;
TERMINATING ALL PENDING
MOTIONS

Plaintiff Steven Bonilla has been sentenced to death by the Superior Court of California for the County of Alameda. He is incarcerated at San Quentin State Prison. Although his State habeas case currently is being litigated, he filed a request for appointment of counsel for his future federal habeas litigation in this Court. See Bonilla v. Ayers, No. C 08-0471 CW (PR). Pursuant to Habeas Local Rule 2254-25, this Court granted his request for appointment of counsel and referred the matter to the Northern District's Selection Board for the recommendation of qualified counsel to represent Plaintiff in his federal habeas proceedings. Additionally, pursuant to Habeas Local Rule 2254-24(a), the Court granted Plaintiff's concurrent request for a stay of execution. (Docket no. 3.)

Although Plaintiff's State habeas case is pending, Plaintiff has filed numerous pro se requests and motions in C 08-0471. All of the requests and motions have been denied by this Court or withdrawn by Plaintiff. In particular, on February 16, 2011, the Court issued an Order telling Plaintiff that no further filings

1 regarding CR 88-259 MISC AJZ (Grand Jury proceedings) would be
2 accepted by this Court. (Docket no. 34.) Additionally, the Court
3 dismissed with prejudice In re: Steven Wayne Bonilla, No. C 11-0441
4 CW (PR), a pro se complaint filed by Plaintiff regarding CR 88-259
5 MISC AJZ. (Id.) Most recently, on March 29, 2011, the Court
6 denied several more pro se motions filed by Plaintiff in C 08-0471.
7 In doing so, the Court wrote:

8 As this Court has stated multiple times, Petitioner's
9 state habeas case is still pending in the state court.
10 The Court reiterates to Petitioner that challenges to his
11 state trial conviction must be reviewed by the state
12 courts before being considered by the federal court.
13 Until that time, Petitioner's various claims in his pro
14 se pleadings are not ripe for this Court to consider.

15 (Docket no. 54 at 2:16-22.)

16 Now pending before the Court are thirteen civil rights actions
17 filed by Plaintiff pro se under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. None of the 18 allegations in Plaintiff's complaints, however, states a claim for 19 relief under § 1983. "'Federal law opens two main avenues to 20 relief on complaints related to imprisonment: a petition for habeas
21 corpus, 28 U.S.C. § 2254, and a complaint under the Civil Rights
22 Act of 1871, Rev. Stat. § 1979, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
23 Challenges to the lawfulness of confinement or to particulars
24 affecting its duration are the province of habeas corpus.'" Hill
25 v. McDonough, 547 U.S. 573, 579 (2006) (quoting Muhammad v. Close,
26 540 U.S. 749, 750 (2004)). Thus, to the extent a prisoner
27 maintains he is entitled to "immediate or speedier release" from 28 confinement, such a claim may be asserted only in a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. See Skinner v. Switzer, 131 S. Ct. 1289, 1293 (2011)(internal citation and quotation omitted).

Here, in an apparent attempt to circumvent this Court's prior

1 admonition to Plaintiff that no further filings regarding CR 88-259
2 MISC AJZ would be accepted by the Court and that additional unripe
3 pro se motions in C 08-0471 would be denied, Plaintiff has filed
4 the instant civil rights complaints in which he seeks access to 5 certain discovery, witness testimony, declarations and other
6 information that he claims would render his death penalty
7 conviction invalid, including information regarding CR 88-259 MISC
8 AJZ. Because all of Plaintiff's civil rights complaints seek 9 relief that must be pursued by way of habeas corpus, all of the 10 instant civil rights actions are hereby DISMISSED without prejudice
11 to Plaintiff's bringing his claims in a federal habeas petition.
12 See Trimble v. City of Santa Rosa, 49 F.3d 583, 586 (9th Cir.
13 1995). Plaintiff is reminded, however, that he must heed the 14 Court's prior admonitions before filing additional pro se matters
15 in C 08-0471.

16 Additionally, because the Court has determined that none of 17 the instant civil rights complaints can proceed as a civil rights
18 action but, instead, must be dismissed, the Clerk of the Court is 19 hereby DIRECTED to terminate, in each action, Plaintiff's pending
20 motion to proceed in forma pauperis. No filing fee is due.

21 The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment in each of the 22 above civil rights actions, terminate all pending motions therein,
23 and close the files. The Clerk of the Court also shall file a copy
24 of this Order in C 08-0471.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.
